TO LIBRARY'S AID

COUNCIL GIVES BOARD PERMISSION TO BORROW $400.

TAXES COMING IN NOW

For First Time in Several Months Back Salaries Are Paid.—Council Hears Several Complaints.

With the city council it looks like it was 'just one thing after another.' Just as a special tax had been voted to take care of the street lights and the strain on the general fund had been temporarily relieved, the library board appears on the scene and imparts the information that the library fund was in the red and "would the city council kindly permit us to borrow $400 until the fund is replenished from receipt of city taxes." The city council would and did, although it expressed the opinion that it did not know who would be willing to do the lending. R. L. McDougal, C. A. Hawkins and H. P. Swinehart, members of the library board said they believed they could secure the necessary funds and were given official permission to negotiate the loan. Salaries are behind at the library and bills have been accumulating and the money is badly needed.

And right on top of the library board's request came a petition from residents of West Fifth street complaining that the street adjoining the electric light plant was being used by the electric light company as a storage place with the street two-thirds occupied. Nobody could explain by what authority the light company occupied the street for its own private use and the chief of police was instructed to notify the company that the street must be vacated forthwith.

Then came Joe Chappell, cemetery sexton with a complaint that parties renting the pasture adjoining the cemetery were permitting stock to get out and stray about over the cemetery. "Give them orders to keep their animals out" was the council's instruction. Sexton Chappell declared he had already so ordered, but that no attention was paid by the offending persons. "Give the job to the marshal, then, and arrest them if they do not keep the stock out," was the council's order.

Following a communication from J. J. Heifner, county fuel administrator, that the bottom lights on the White Way standards be turned out on Monday and Tuesday nights of each week until further notice, the light company was advised of the ruling and instructed to discontinue the service indicated.

An ordinance regulating the erection and maintenance of electric signs on business houses was passed by the council.

FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

In asking your vote for the office of prosecuting attorney of Nodaway county I want to pledge my best efforts, in the event of my election, to a consciencious performance of all the duties involved without fear or favor. To those who do not know me personally, I was raised in Nodaway and am a member of the Nodaway county bar. My past experience and practice has equipped me for a performance of the duties of prosecuting attorney. I feel that I can stand on my past record as a trial lawyer, as an investigator and as counsel in civil matters, giving assurance that no matter, however small, but what will be given my fullest attention. Being a young man and with an American's ambition to make good in any undertaking, I am asking that you give me your confidence to the extent of your vote on November 5. Also, with a Missourian's desire to "be shown," I would also ask an opportunity to show and prove my ability and qualifications for the office. I shall let any promises I may make be shown in action that will make the office of prosecuting attorney one of service for the people, an enforcement of the laws and the protection of the county's interests.

With great respect,

CHARLES F. McCAFFREY.

YOU WILL VOTE ON

9 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS ON BALLOTS TUESDAY

THEIR MEANING GIVEN

Six Have Been Submitted by Legislature and Three Are Through the Initiative.

Tuesday the qualified voters of Missouri will adopt or defeat individually nine proposed amendments to the constitution of Missouri.

Although the full context of the amendments have been published for the past two weeks in newspapers in every county of the state, it is doubtful if one voter in fifty has informed himself upon the issues at stake. The following is a digest of issues involved.

The first six amendments are submitted by action of the state legislature. The seventh, eighth and ninth are submitted through the use of the initiative.

The first proposed amendment is a proposal aimed at better rural schools. It provides for the raising of annual rates of taxation for school purposes in rural districts from 65 cents to 100 cents on the $100 valuation of property, when the majority of the voters who are taxpayers of a district are ready for the increase.

Under the existing section of the constitution, only districts foremd of cities and towns have the right to increase the levy.

The second amendment, concerning the public school fund, involves three district provisions. It proposes a change in the wording of Section 6, Article 11, of the constitution, the purpose of such change being to secure for the free public schools and the state university all of the revenue to which those institutions are rightfully entitled.

State Aid Included.

The same amendment would levy a general state tax of 15 cents on the $100 valuation, to be used for school purposes only. It also provides that the General Assembly shall assist any school eight months of the year.

The third amendment is a "good roads" issue. It authorizes the county court to make a special levy of 75 cents on the $100 valuation of a road district for road purposes within that district when the majority of the voters at a special election so direct.

The fourth amendment, concerning taxation, is another "good roads" measure. It would cause to be levied a general state tax of 10 cents on the $100 assessed property valuation, the tax to be used by the counties for the building and maintainance of public roads and city streets.

One-half of the revenue derived from such levy would be placed to the credit of the state road fund; one-fourth would be apportioned to the counties of the state and to St. Louis according to their respective areas; and one-fourth would be distributed according to population.

"Whenever the taxable property of the state shall amount to three billion dollars," the amendment provides, "the rate shall be reduced to five cents on the $100 valuation." The total taxable wealth of Missouri is now a little less that two billion dollars.

Permits More City Debts.

The fifth amendment relates to limiting of municipal indebtedness. The Missouri law states that no county, city, town or school district may become indebted to an amount exceeding the revenue of that political unit for one fiscal year. But cities of the state between 2,000 and 30,000 inhabitants are allowed to incur additional indebtedness for water works and light plants

The fifth amendment, if adopted, would extend the privilege of additional indebtedness to apply for paving, macadamizing, grading and other street improvement work within the city.

The sixth amendment concerning the prohibition of the manufacture, sale and giving away of intoxicating liquors in Missouri reads as follows:

"The manufacture of intoxicating state, except for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes. The sale of intoxicating liquors is also hereby prohibited in the state, except for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes The giving away of intoxicating liquors is also hereby prohibited in this state, except for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes. The manufacture or sale of wine for religious or sacramental purposes is also excepted.

Austria Asks Allies For Armistice Terms

Request Made Under a Flag of Truce Is Now Being Considered by Supreme War Council—Paris Hears That Austria Has Accepted and Agreement Has Been Signed

HUN SURRENDER CERTAIN

DIPLOMATIC ADVICES REACHING WASHINGTON SAYS GERMANY WILL QUICKLY FOLLOW AUSTRIA AND BUGARIA IN ACCEDING TO TERMS GIVEN

BULGARIA IS PROCLAIMED A REPUBLIC

Crown Prince Boris Has Abdicated And The Government Is Headed By Strumbulenski, a Peasant With 40,000 Troops—Bohemia Also Declares Independence And Ousts 600 Crown Officials

Paris, Nov. 2.—An unconfirmed rumor reached Paris this afternoon that an armistice with Austria had been signed, according to the Figaro. The Austrians are evacuating Odessa, says a Moscow dispatch to the Matin.

Rome, Nov. 2.—Official announcement is made today that an American staff officer has formally requested General Diaz to conclude an armistice. The request was forwarded to Premier Orlando at the supreme council at Paris. The request was made under a flag of truce. The foregoing probably means that the Austrians have accepted the Allies' terms. It had been previously announced that the Allies' terms had been sent to the Austrians yesterday. It is generally believed that the terms called for unconditional surrender. The action of the officer indicates that Austria acceded to this and wants the Italians to bring the fighting to an end immediately.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Germany's complete surrender to the Allies is now absolutely certain, diplomatic advices reaching Washington over night stated. So strong is the revolutionary movement headed by socialist leader, Karl Libenicht, that the authorities are afraid to deny it. Not only in Berlin, but in industrial centers everywhere in the empire. Reports that Austria has followed the example of Turkey and Bulgaria brought out of Germany are causing panics in many localities. The leading German papers print without interference stories speculating as to whether the people will accept twelve-year-old Prince William as ruler under a regeney, or whether an independent republic will be organized.

London, Nov. 2.—A republic has formally been proclaimed at Prague, Bohemia, and six hundred crown officials have been expelled from office, a Zurich correspondent of the Daily News states.

London, Nov. 2.—Bulgaria has been proclaimed a republic, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin via Copenhagen said. Crown Prince Boris has abdicated the throne. The government is headed by Strumbulenski, a peasant, who has at his command 40,000 troops.

London, Nov. 2.—The terms of the armistice granted by the Allied Powers to Turkey follow:

"1. The opening of the Dardanelles and the Bosporus and access to the Black Sea. Allied occupation of the Dardanelles and the Bosporus forts.

"2. The positions of all mine fields torpedo tubes and other obstructions in Turkish waters are to be indicated, and assistance given to sweep or remove them, as may be required.

"3. All available information concerning mines in the Black Sea is to be communicated.

Must Release Prisoners.

"4. All Allied prisoners of war and Armenian interned persons and prisoners are to be collected in Constantinople and handed over unconditionally to the Allies.

"5. Immediate demobilization of the Turkish army, except such troops as are required for surveillance on the frontiers and for the maintenance of internal order. The number of effectives and their disposition to be determined late rby the Allies after consultation with the Turkish government.

Surrender All War Vessels.

"6. The surrender of all war vessels in Turkish waters or waters occupied by Turkey. These ships will be interned in such Turkish port or ports as may be directed, except such

"FLU" IS CHECKED

CONDITIONS SHOW IMPROVEMENT IN PAST FEW DAYS

BAN TO REMAIN ON YET

City Physician Says That Not Until Next Week Will It Be Safe to Lift Closing Order.

While the order closing the schools, churches, picture shows and public gatherings will remain in force during the next week, influenza conditions in the city are showing a change for the better, no new cases having been reported to Dr. F. M. Ryan, city physician, for the past forty-eight hours. "If we get along during the first half of next week as well as we have the past three days," said Dr. Ryan this afternoon, "we can pretty safely lift the ban the last of next week."

Dr. Ryan said that nearly all of the cases under quarantine were showing improvement and that next week would see most of them released. Patients at the hospital are also doing nicely and no serious cases are reported from the institution today.

Dr. Ryan said that while it looked as if the epidemic would be effectually checked within a day or two, that there was still danger of contagion, which due to the treacherous nature of the disease, might cause it to quickly spread again. Dr. Ryan urged a continuance of prevention measures during the coming week.

The closing order put in effect at the Normal last Thursday will be continued and all persons having business at the school will be required to go first to the offices and members of the S. A. T. C., will be permitted to come in contact with outsiders.

At the hospital the call for help to assist with dishwashing and in aiding nurses met with generous response and more volunteers applied than were needed.

To Return to Cameron.

Miss Lucile Airy and Miss Stella Rogers, teachers in the Cameron schools, who have been spending the past two weeks with their folks, Mr. and Mrs. John Airy and Mrs. Carrie Rogers, will leave tonight for Cameron to begin their school work Monday. The quarantine there has been lifted.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

It is well in these few days before election for the average man to keep his mind off the politicians and what they say and on the business in hand—and the business in hand is winning this world war. Very unfortunate it is that we must be in the whirlpool of politics at this time. Republicans are accusing the Democrats, mainly the President, of causing the situation; Democrats are accusing the Republicans of starting it. The average man who wants no office, never expects to have an office, but wants to do his best as a citizen for his country, will overlook what the politicians are saying and vote as his conscience determines, keeping in mind the fact that the issue is winning the war and helping the President to carry out the policies he has formulated, not only for this country, but for the world.

We must not forget, as citizens, that President Wilson is a world figure and will have more to do with shaping the future policy of the world than any other man on earth. We must not forget that Wilson shaped the policy of the war. Before the United States was in the war, it was a matter of a few nations crushing other nations. It was Wilson who placed the war on a great moral plane; it was the President who pushed the selfish and materialistic interests of European nations into the background and aroused the world to the evils of militarism; it was the President who made appeal to the oppressed peoples and offered them comfort; it was the President who changed the whole world thot; it was the President who injected into this war the prospect of world peace. Wilson made the issue one of liberation of the world; it was no longer a fight between nations for control of other nations by force after Wilson got to speaking and writing of the issues involved. It was this force, this great moral force, this new issue that brot to the Allies the moral support of the neutral world. Wilson created the issue that caused the oppressed races to rise. To his leadership may be credited the breaking up of Austria-Hungary. To him may be given credit for the surrender of Bulgaria. To him may be given credit for trouble existing in the German empire today. Wilson brot the dissatisfied elements in Britain, France and Italy to the government. The Socialists of the old world saw the war in a new light after Wilson spoke. Wilson's great moral issue brot the Allies solidly into the fight to remain until the finish.

It need not be related how his leadership brot success to America's efforts to take part in the war—how 2,000,000 men were trained and landed in France; how immense ship yards were built; how the navy performed its great tasks; that we all know about; we have all glorified our efforts; we have all praised the guiding hand that brot all this about. Unquestionably the great body of American people are with Wilson. Then what is Wilson's crime? He has offended the politicians by appealing to the American people to send to congress men who will support him and not men who will organize against him and will make his work harder instead of easier. That is all the crime Wilson has committed and a great crime it is to hear the mere politicians office holders and would-be office holders proclaim against him; tear the air and their hair in denunciation of the man who has done all these things. If any man in the world, sorely tried, has had a right to appeal to the people to stand by him against the politicians, office holders and the would-be office holders, that man is Wilson. If any man in the world, of the past or of the present, deserves the support of the people, both for himself, and for what he has done and for what he is capable of doing, that man is Wilson, president of the United States and liberator of the world, as the oppressed people see him.

It is inconceivable that the American people will not back him up by voting for the men who will support him, notwithstanding the politicians, office holders and would-be office holders. What selfish men, what professional politicians want, is not really the concern of the solid citizen; his concern should be to support the President and make his task lighter, if he approve of what Wilson has done. Politicians, office holders and would-be office holders will find that there is a new and independent thot in the United States as well as elsewhere in the world, when the votes are counted in November.—Waterloo, Ia., Times-Tribune.

CORP. JESSE ANDERSON WRITES.

Says Most Numerous Thing in France is Cooties—Is Company Clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson of 414 West Second street have received the following letter from their son, Corporal Jesse L. Anderson, in France:

France, Oct. 9.

Dear Mother and Dad: I received a letter today from home dated Sept. 21, so you see it isn't taking long to get a letter. If our letters just went to you people that fast everything would be better. It is sure getting cold here now. Jack and I are sleeping under five blankets, with about that many under us, also some straw on the ground. When I get back never let it be said that I ever pay room or house rent. I will just go out and pitch my pup tent and attach myself for rations to my wife. That's just army talk. Lord, folks, I haven't slept in a house for so long that I don't know how to walk into one, let alone sleep in a bed. No board will be too hard for me to sleep on. Now, when I sleep on the ground and my hip pushes a hole in it I just turn over and let the other hip make a hole. At that, though, I am getting fat. I weigh 145 now and getting fatter every meal. We have good meals, good clothes, and plenty of blankets.

You have read about cooties in France, haven't you? Well, just add a little more onto what you have read and what you have read and it is all the truth. I expect to wake up any morning and find my clothes dragged outside of the tent by cooties. We say we haven't a single cootie. We haven't a single cootie. We haven't, they are all married and have large families.

I am sure seeing some sights. Towns all shot to pieces, regular deserted villages. This is a rolling country we are in at present. Something like northwest Missouri; we were in the mountainous country. I believe I used to pay fifty cents to see an airplane. Now, I would give more than that many dollars to get out of the sight of them. I saw seventy-two go over this afternoon in one bunch. Actually they were as thick as blackbirds used to be. * * * I have been on the front and seen the shells burst, too close to be comfortable. Of course it is nothing to hide in a dugout until the shrapnel quits falling or to keep out of reach of those big shells. When one of those large shells bursts it makes a hole in the ground large enough to drive a team and wagon in. I am not talking about the very largest, just the smallest of the large ones. Our company doesn't go over the top, you know, but they get pretty close. I am not supposed to go up even as far as our company, as the company clerk stays back and forms the personnel office of the regiment and reports all casualties, etc., when they are in action. Our company had no casualties in this drive but several horses were shot while hitched to wagons. The regiment as a whole, however, had several casualties, but mostly they were wounded or slightly gassed.

Now, mother, you and father needn't get worried if you don't hear from me right when you think you should, for remember, I can't write just like I did in the States. But will write at least once a week. Will close with heaps of love.

MEETS MARYVILLE BOYS

Clarence Warren Visits With the Home Boys in France.

Mrs. Nettie Warren received yesterday a letter from her youngest son, Clarence, who has been in service in France for some months.

"France, Oct. 7.

"Dear Mother.—I received your letter dated September 9, this morning. * * * I have written you a letter every week as I said I would. I suppose Carl is in a training camp but I do not think he will see France from the way today's papers read. I saw George Tate and Jim Anderson about a week ago. They are both in the same company of infantry and were camped close to where our camp is. I run on to them going to water my team. Halley Ford is in the Headquarters company of 342 Field Artillery. Dick Livasy ought to have been with us one evening, 22 feet is not very close for a high explosive. I had one hit closer to me than that. I am well and feeling fine. Lovingly your son,

CLARENCE WARREN,
Battery D, 342 Field Artillery, A. E. F.

IS UP WHERE THE GUNS SPIT.

"Peaceful" Henry Reynolds Right at the Front Where Shells Fly Like Birds.

The following letter was written by Henry Reynolds, Hdqs. Co. 139, Infantry, France, to his father, Cyrus Reynolds:

France, Sept. 8.

Dear Father:

I will drop you a few lines to let you know I am alright and hope you are the same. Floyd (his brother) is away from the regiment and I have not seen him for a long time. But he is all right and don't worry about him. I just got out of a big battle and I am all right. You know Bob Garten, well he got gassed and is in the hospital. Talk about the big guns—well, I was right up where they spit right at you. The shells flew around like birds. I received your letter the other day and was glad to hear you were working for Rol. Tell Rol I said hello and to write to me. I sure do get lonesome for news from home. How is the bible class making it? Well, father I can't think of much more to write you. I am glad you have a good job and have plenty of house and garden stuff for the winter. With lots of love. Your loving son,

HENRY.

WRITES FROM CAMP JACKSON.

Forrest ("Mike") Knox Says the Boys are Getting a Good Work Out.

In a letter to his mother, Forrest Knox writes from Camp Jackson as follows:

"This is sure some place down here in South Carolina. Everything is 'you all,' and there are more negroes than there are whites; nothing here but all pine trees and white sand, the latter about six inches deep, and the wind blows all the time. It is hot in the day time but cools off at night. We are drilling hard all the time. You would not know me now—I am just as black as a negro, for we drill most of the time without hats or shirts and the sun sure beats down on you. They are sure working us out. There is a fellow here from Maryville, Ed Kirk. Coney Strom and a lot of the boys are here but I don't have time to see much of them. Don't know how long we will be here but by the way they are putting us through don't think we will be here long. We have but part of our sea equipment and expect to get the rest at any time. The bunch is rarin' to go across the pond. We are in the heavy artillery and it is sure some fast work—everything is double time. You never work if you walk and you've got to run in everything you do."

WHAT THE STAR SAID IN 1898

At Time of Spanish-American War It Urged Retention of G. O. P. Control Until War Was Settled.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—The appeal of President Wilson for his war policies and the election of a Democratic congress is meeting with the approval of the people of the state generally, but is being condemned by the Republican politicians.

The newspapers of the state which oppose the appeal are the Kansas City Star and St. Louis Globe-Democrat, but their opposition is not considered as serious because of their utterances during the war with Spain when they did not oppose McKinley's desire for a Republican congress.

At that time the Star said:

"The people have stood together, regardless of politics, in supporting the government in prosecuting the war, and there is sound logic in the contention of the Republicans that there could be no change in the control of congress, until the issues arising out of the war are settled."

The Globe-Democrat said:

"This is again a McKinley campaign. The main issues are national. The election of a Democratic congress will be anti-McKinley. The course of the President, past, present and future, would in that case, stand condemned by the people."

Another editorial in the Globe-Democrat said:

"The result of the election will be awaited with as much interest in Spain as in the United States."

The people generally, according to reports received here believe that President Wilson should and will receive the support of voters as did Lincoln and McKinley.

GAVE HER PLACE TO A NEGRO

Republican Politicians in St. Louis, Take Unusual Means to Turn the Tide of Election.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—The citizenship of St. Louis was indignant today when it was revealed by the Post-Dispatch that Mrs. Belle Tracy, was discharged as probation officer in the court of Judge Calhoun and her place filled by a negro.

The change convinced everyone of the efforts of the Kiel-Schmoll-Weeke Republican machine to hold the negro vote.

Mrs. Tracy is the mother of two boys in the service, one of whom has been returned home because of injuries.

Kiel-Schmoll-Weeke machine is exerting every effort to elect Spencer senator over Governor Folk but the recent revelations by the police and election officials that four thousand negroes were fradulently registered as voters, has sent their hopes to the junk pile.

President Wilson to the American People

I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in matters of patriotism. I feel too deeply the sacrifices which have been made in this war by all our citizens, irrespective of party affiliations, to harbor such an idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sort that makes it imperatively necessary that the nation should give its undivided support to the government under a unified leadership. . .

This is no time either for divided counsel or for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil action as it is upon the field of battle. . . .

The peoples of the allied countries with whom we are associated against Germany are quite familiar with the significance of elections. . . . I need not tell you, my fellow countrymen, that I am asking your support, not for my sake or for the sake of a political party, but for the sake of the nation itself in order that its inward unity of purpose may be evidenced to all the world. . . .

If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds, I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand, either here at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea. I submit my difficulties and hopes to you.

THE YEARS OF WOODROW WILSON'S LEADERSHIP HAVE BEEN GLORIOUS YEARS FOR AMERICA—YEARS OF PROSPERITY AT HOME AND VICTORY ABROAD. HE HAS NEVER LED THE NATION WRONG. FOLLOW HIM NOW.

Vote With Wilson for The Democratic Ticket

If you are impressed with the sincerity and soundness of the President's appeal, as you certainly must be, and desire to support him, you will realize that you should not fail to vote for Governor Folk for United States Senate and Chas. F. Booher for Congress.

Only One Place Where There are no Women.

Women can never complain that the great masculine minds of the world treat them with indifference even in war times. Dr. George H. Combs of Kansas City, who is doing Y. M. C. A. work in France in a recent war article wrote that he had often wondered at the skimpiness of all descriptions of transport voyaging and he could not understand it until he made the trip. This is the reason:

"The most unrealizable thing is that for the first time in their lives these tens of thousands of men, sailing in these grotesquely camouflaged ships, are utterly cut off from the world of womankind—sister, mother, sweetheart, wife. Nowhere else in the world is there such an absolute separation from the gentler sex.

On loftiest far off plains there are women; in roughest mining towns there are women; even in the jails and in the penitentiaries there are women. But not on a troopship. Even the battle front itself is not so bereft of her presence, for well forward, even in the danger zones, the "Y" and Red Cross women are engaged in hellest ministries. But the troopship is a manship, without a single gracious touch of woman's finger. And it isn't lovely—not one little bit. There are many preachers—and I confess to being one of that number—who conceive that a parson's ministry should be directed most largely to men, but for once at least in my life I could respond with fervor to the toast, "The Ladies—God Bless Them." Again and again on this trip there has come to me the lines I had learned in amateur theatricals in my boyhood days:

Rachel, Rachel, I've been thinking
What a weary world 'twould be
If all the women were transported
Far across the Northern Sea.
And in every truth it would."

"JOHNNIE, MAKE A MASK"

With several operators of the Hanamo telephone exchange ill with the "flu" and the others wearing medicated masks, to prevent an attack, Miss Bessie Todd, secretary, has written the following parody which the operators are using as the rallying song:

Johnnie, make a mask, make a mask,
Oh, it's quite a task, quite a task,
For this old "Flu," it will get you,
If you don't wear a gauze mask.
You must wear one every day,
Till the "Flu" has flew away,
To be sung to the refrain of the song "Over There," the last half of the chorus.

BACK IN THE FIGHTING LINE

Corporal Roy David Recovered From Wounds and Ready Again for the Huns.—Writes Sister Here.

Mrs. S. T. Gile received a letter yesterday from her brother, Corporal Roy David in France written October 7, telling her that he had completely recovered from his injuries and was ready to go back into the trenches again.

Young David was wounded in July and after a few weeks in a hospital in France was removed to England to recuperate. He has seen sixteen months in active service and went to France with General Pershing's first expedition. He was in the same company with one of Theodore Roosevelt's sons. The entire division has seen very strenuous service during these months.

In the letter to his sister, which encloses a picture of himself, young David says:

"Dear Sister and All: I have received no letter for a long, long time and suppose they have all gone astray. Once more I am in France, but as yet not with my company. Hope soon to be there. My goodly right (The wound was in his right arm) is strong again and ready for the Huns. In fact I feel fit all over and anxious to be with my company again. After sixteen months am still on top. I haven't been able to see or hear anything of Ray (his brother). He was with the 71st Division and I don't know whether they have been in or not."

CHRISTMAS BOXES

RED CROSS GIVES INSTRUCTIONS FOR SENDING OVER-SEAS

MUST BEAR THE LABEL

Do Not Mail Them Yourself But Take Them to Red Cross Headquarters Where They Must Be Inspected.

The War and Postoffice Departments and the American Red Cross have made an arrangement by which every man in the army overseas may receive a Christmas parcel from his family or friends. The amount of shipping space which can be set aside for the transportation of these parcels will permit the sending of but one parcel to each man.

Each soldier overseas will be provided with one Christmas Parcel Label. This label will be forwarded by him to the person in the United States from whom he wishes to receive his Christmas package. Packages that do not bear this label will not be accepted by the Red Cross for delivery to the postoffice authorities. Labels that are lost will not be duplicated.

These boxes, 3x4x9, will be provided to holders of labels at the Red Cross headquarters on West Third street in Maryville and at the other thirteen branch headquarters over Nodaway county. They may be obtained at these places after November 1.

Do not mail the box yourself. When packed, the box, unsealed and unwrapped, ready for inspection, should be taken to your Red Cross headquarters. They must not weigh more than 2 pounds 15 ounces. If the parcel is over weight, some article must be removed.

At the Red Cross headquarters in Maryville, the inspection of these parcels will be made by an employee of the postoffice who will have stamps on hand to carry them to Hoboken, N. J. They will remain in the custody of the Red Cross until delivered to the postal authorities. No parcel will be accepted by the Red Cross for shipment after November 20.

Articles Barred by P. O. Regulations.

The following is a list of the principal classes of articles which are unmailable:

All spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors.

All kinds of poison and all articles and compositions containing poison.

Explosives of all kinds.

Inflammable materials, including friction matches.

Infernal machines and mechanical, chemical or other devices of compositions which may ignite or explode.

Note. Under this classification would come cigarette lighters, etc.

Liquids or liquefiable articles, fragile articles and other admissible matter when not packed in accordance with the requirements of the Postal Laws and Regulations.

All other articles which may kill, or in any wise hurt, harm, or injure another, or damage or deface or otherwise injure the mails or other property.

Bear These Facts in Mind When Packing Your Christmas Parcel.

Nothing should go in a Christmas Parcel which will not keep fresh from the time of packing until Christmas.

Dried fruits and other food products should be packed in small tin or wooden boxes, one-quarter to one-half pound size.

Hard candy, including chocolate, would probably be safe in tinfoil or heavy cardboard, but no soft chocolates nor anything that could possibly be crushed should be used, as the remaining contents of the package might be spoiled thereby.

Several dainties packed in oblong tin boxes holding each a quarter of a pound will provide a better variety for a packet than a larger quantity of a single confection.

No liquids nor articles packed in glass should be placed in the package.

For wrapping the gifts, use a khaki-colored handkerchief, twenty-seven inches square.

PHYSICALLY FIT AT ANY AGE

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit. Watch the kidneys.

The kidneys are the most overworked organs in thehuman body. When they break down under the strain and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystalizes look out! These sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's disease.

One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, high colored or scanty urine, loss of appetite, indigestion or rheumatism.

Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble go after the cause at once. Go to your druggist immediately. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland, where they have been in use for over two hunddred years. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes. Adv.

FRY 10,000 DOUGHNUTS A DAY

Three Heroic American Women Under Shell-fire, Provide Soldiers With "Hotones."

Paris, Nov. 1 (by cable).—Three heroic American women have been frying 10,000 doughnuts a day under shell fire throughout this week's fighting on the western front, in order to give the American fighting men some hot, home food to fortify themselves with while driving the Germans.

The particular three whose work has just come to notice through the praise of the soldiers are Mary Bray, of Pawtucket, R. I., Mrs. Edith Knowles, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mary Holliday, Indianapolis, Ind., all Y. M. C. A. workers.

Their daily output of 10,000 doughnuts proved an appreciable item in the vast free distribution of small comforts for soldiers carried on by the Y. M. C. A., K. of C. and Salvation Army of the United War Work agencies on the fighting front.

This big output of doughnuts has been made over a bonfire in the field under fire. When supplies ran short they substituted olive oil for lard and sweet condensed milk for sugar, but the doughnuts, crisp, brown and palatable, were tremendously appreciated by the fighting troops.

MORE RESTRICTIONS ON SUGAR

Soft Drink Manufacturers Given Only 25 Per Cent of Requirements.

Restrictions upon the use of sugar by manufacturers will be even more rigid in November and December than in recent allotments by the Food Administration. The Missouri Division of the Food Administration has been notified that sugar allotments for household use will be held rigidly to two pounds a person a month and that further restrictions have been made regarding the use of sugar by manufacturers.

Soft drink manufacturers will be given only 25 per cent of the amount of sugar normally required in their business. This cuts in half the amounts they were entitled to use in the months of July, August, September and October. Ice cream manufacturers will come under the same restrictions, receiving only one-fourth of the amount of sugar normally required. Practically all manufacturers of beverage syrups, confections, chewing gum, chocolate, cocoa, cough drops, malted milk syrups and molasses, soda water, adulterated honey, and similar articles, will be cut to 50 per cent of the average monthly use of sugar from July 1 to December 31, 1916 and 1917, combined.

N. Y. WRECK DEAD NOW 97

Brooklyn Tragedy Is Worst Since Triangle Shirt Waist Factory Fire and Slocum Disaster.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

New York, Nov. 2. — Ninety-seven persons are known to have been killed in the wreck of the Brighton Beach elevated train in the tunnel at Prospect Park station last night. The catastrophe is the worst since the Triangle shirt waist factory fire and the Slocum ocean disaster. All night long the work of recovering the bodies of the dead and rescuing the injured was carried on by the police and firemen. It is estimated today the dead may reach one hundred and ten. Seventy-six of one hundred and twenty-five reported injured are said to be mortally, seriously or dangerously hurt. Charges have been made against elevated officials and a motorman is being held.

The tragedy marked the first day of a strike called by the company's motormen to enforce reinstatement of twenty-nine members as ordered by the National War Labor Board. Both trains were jammed with passengers as the strike had resulted in a material reduction in service.

PUSH WAR FUND DRIVE

Chairman Gillam Points Out That Peace Negotiations Will Not Relieve of Obligations.

Whether the near future brings with it peace or continued warfare will have no bearing on the necessity of success for the United War Fund Campaign, which will be carried on all over the United States the week of November 11-18, to obtain funds for the seven recognized war relief organizations that are working behind the lines and in the camps for the comfort and entertainment of the soldier off duty, according to Chairman S. C. Gillam of Maryville, who will have charge of the pushing of the campaign in this district. The first district comprises Atchison, Nodaway, Worth and Gentry.

"Peace, or the signing of an armistice will not relieve the American people of the duty of supporting these most worthy organizations, and financing them for their operations next year," said Chairman Gillam yesterday: "In the relaxation and lessened tension that will follow such an event, the fighting forces will need the aid of these agencies even more, if that were possible, than they do now. Our boys must be taken care of whether they are actually fighting in battle, or lying idle and unemployed in camps and barracks. In fact they need such diversions as these organizations can give them, even more in the latter situation. When the final victory comes we shall be obligded to keep up the work of such influences as these for at least a year after the signing of peace treaty."

The seven organizations that will benefit by the United War Fund Campaign are the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. National Catholic War Council, (K. of C.), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association, and Salvation Army, all of whom are extensively engaged in recreational and other work among the American fighting forces. The quota which was originally given to this district was $69,000, but we have since been officially requested to place our goal at $104,000, a 50 per cent increase, an amount which Chairman Gillam predicts will be readily subscribed.

Public Notice

To any person that wants to make more money, come to Wyoming and buy you a farm where the crop in one year will pay for the land and where one acre put in potatoes will pay for five acres at the present price; where you and your family will be healthy and you are sure to prosper if you work and try like you have to in Missouri. Now I know what I am saying, as I lived here in good old Missouri for 18 years and always tried hard to get us a home, but when I left here three years ago I owed over $1,600.00 of debts here that I could not pay, but have paid them since I went to Wyoming. I am only telling you this to encourage you to come. We have good schools good churches, good water and climate, and as good people as you can find anywhere. I have land I can sell from $15.00 per acre up to $50.00 per acre. Close to two good railroads. Have got a 2,400 acre ranch at $25.00 per acre that is sure a bargain.

Now the first reason I want you to come to Wyoming is, because if you come and buy a farm I get a small commission out of it, but that is not the best reason. I know I will be doing you a favor and know you will always be glad you come. Now, in case some stranger to me should read this ad. I will give you as reference some of the best men in Nodaway County or any other county. In Parnell, James Barber, W. N. Morgan, C. C. Evans, A. J. Roof, Bill Jackson; Ravenwood, Mo., S. E. Wells, and V. O. Hunt; Barnard, Mo., George Cole, banker; Gaynor City, Mo., Charlie Lewis; Sheridan, Mo., C. C. Hall; Hopkins, Mo., Albert Mutti; Maryville, Mo., Nathaniel Sisson, U. S. Wright, Henry Wright, James Robinson. For any information about this county, if you can't see me when I am here, write me at Carpenter, Wyo. I took three men out with me two weeks ago and sold all three a farm. Would be glad to have you talk to any of these men: Cecil Talkington of Parnell or Elmer Talkington and Pete Mumford of Bedford, Iowa. We raise corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, speltz, flax, millet, cane and potatoes, alfalfa and good gardens. Poultry of all kinds do well. Stock of all kinds do well, especially hogs, as hog cholera is unknown.

The only way you can realize what a good county we have is to come and see it. For further information, write—

Frank Bebb, Carpenter, Wyoming

A RAINBOW GOES WITH THEM

Macon, Nov. 2.—Every time the Rainbow Division gets into action a rainbow appears in the direction of the Division's advance, according to Major Cooper D. Winn, of Macon, commander of the One Hundred and Fifty-first Machine Gun Battalion.

"Speaking of the rainbow," the major says in a letter to Mrs. Winn, "a phenomenon—or so we have come to regard it—always appears in the shape of a beautiful rainbow when we go into a fight. It has not failed a single time yet, and on the last occasion you could actually see both ends of the rainbow resting in the ground and its arch spanned the direction of our advance. We did not find the fabled bag of gold, but we did find a bag of Germans and much of their booty."

He also is improving, but the writer did not say in what way he, the latter boy, was injured. Both are members of Co. B, 14th Infantry.

BIG JOB AHEAD YET

AFTER PEACE TWO YEARS BEFORE THE BOYS COME HOME

GEN. DUPONT GIVES VIEW

Allied Officers Declare It Will Take A Year to Clean Out Hun Barbed Wire Strung Across France.

New York, Nov. 2.—Demobilization of the American forces in France will require a period of two years after peace is declared, according to a statement made here last night by General T. Coleman Du Pont, who has just returned from a two months' visit to the western front.

Declaring that his views were the reflection of official opinion among the Allied forces, he asked that Americans accustom themselves to the idea of a long demobilization as they had to that of long war.

"One of our generals asked me," he said, "to tell the people at home that our boys have a year's work ahead of them in removing the barbed wire the Huns have strung across France."

Asserting that the Civil war had "turned thousands of men back into civil life weakened and purposeless," General Du Pont said that even war work agencies should be supported generously in their approaching campaign. He declared that "statesman-like plans were being laid" for the trying period following peace.

"Every hut in France," he said, "will become a university class room on the day peace is signed. The boys will be given every educational advantage under leading educators and business men from the United States."

YOU WILL VOTE ON

The constitutional provision shall not take effect until November 1, 1919."

Would Start Loan Fund.

The seventh amendment would establish in the state treasury a fund to be known as the Homestead Loan Fund. The plan is to help citizens of Missouri purchase homesteads and to help them erect permanent improvements. No loan on one homestead is to exceed $3,000. Every loan made from the fund would bear interest at 3 per cent per year, beginning one year after the date of the loan. Every loan would be properly secured.

The eighth amendment provides that "all public revenues for state, county, municipal, school and all other public purposes shall be derived from taxes on the value of land exclusive of improvements and from such taxes as may be imposed by law on the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors and tobacco."

It also makes allowance for taxing of incomes and inhiertances and states that this measure "shall not prevent the imposition of such license taxes as may be necessary to a proper exercise of the police power."

The ninth amendment would authorize cities having a population of more than 100,000 inhabitants to provide by ordinance for the election of a charter commission to frame a new charter as well as for arrangements pursuant to the adoption of the new charter. This, if passed, will apply to Kansas City, as the case of St. Louis is already covered.
